

Below is a portrayal of the vast European programme. In the central rectangle are arranged those firms making what might be termed "systems," and a key to the lettering employed appears above. The totals of aircraft produced are those which will actually roll out from the factories concerned.

Fiat will ship parts for 30 aircraft to Belgium, so that true manufacturing totals from each source are as given in the table above

